The Conflict Resolution Advisory Committee advises the Vice President for Equity and Diversity on the performance of the Office for Conflict Resolution and advises the Office for Conflict Resolution on general policy and implementation issues. The people on the Conflict Resolution Advisory Committee serve for three-year terms. (Appointing authority and year term concludes are in parentheses.) The Conflict Resolution Advisory Committee is not involved in processing individual petitions.